Section 841(a) (1). All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846.

I. OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The objects of said conspiracy were, among others:

1. The purchase of controlled substances for further distribution in the South Coast of Puerto Rico.
2. To distribute controlled substances, including cocaine and heroin, at the drug point (known as "punto") located at the Ernesto Ramos Antonini Public Housing Project in the Municipality of Ponce, Puerto Rico, for financial gain and profit.
3. To possess and carry firearms in order to protect their persons and the drug point ("punto") against other drug trafficking organizations or law enforcement personnel.
4. To maintain all the members of the conspiracy informed of each others drug trafficking activities.

II. MEANS AND MANNER OF THE CONSPIRACY

During pertinent times of the conspiracy, Edwin Gutierrez Rentas supplied heroin to Angel O. Irizarry Centeno, a.k.a. "Chamorro," Ramón Ortiz Santana a.k.a. "Pito Nariz," and others. During pertinent times of the conspiracy, Miguel Gonzalez-Sanchez, un-indicted herein, and others supplied cocaine to a person known to the Grand Jury. The heroin and cocaine were later distributed at the drug point (punto) located in the Ernesto Ramos Antonini Public Housing Project.

III. OVERT ACTS IN FURTHERANCE OF THE CONSPIRACY

In furtherance of this conspiracy and to effect and accomplish the objects of it, one or more of the co-conspirators committed, among others, the following overt acts, in the
